Cloetta awarded "Listed Company of the Year" for the second consecutive year

Cloetta is best in class when it comes to financial communication among the listed companies in Sweden. On Thursday, Cloetta won the prize for "Best Annual Report", thereby winning the overall award "Listed Company of the Year", organized by Aktiespararna and Kanton.

After winning the award for "Best IR-web" and reaching a prominent position in the competition "Best Interim Report" Cloetta shared the first prize for "Best Annual Report", thereby winning the overall award "Listed Company of the Year 2014".

"High quality in financial communication is important in order to increase knowledge of Cloetta as a company. Being awarded "Listed Company of the Year" for the second consecutive year is a proof that we have been able to maintain high quality in our financial communication", says Jacob Broberg, Senior Vice President Corporate Communications and Investor Relations.

Motivation for Listed Company of the Year 2014 Award

"Cloetta wins the overall award in the competition Listed Company of the Year 2014 by virtue of prominent placements in all disciplines of the competition: IR website, Interim Report and Annual Report."

Motivation for the Best Annual Report 2014 Award

"A shared first place in the competition Best Annual Report is the reward for the rich content of Cloetta's annual report 2014. Transparent reporting and pride in brands, products and operations characterizes the annual report of one of Sweden's most distinguished listed companies."
